Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. Our Pastor gave us 6 'R' steps for dealing with our past. What are some benefits in each step?
2. John 16:33 contains 4 sentences. Why do they occur in this order?
3. What did Jesus say is the purpose of hard times (Luke 21:13)? How can hard times make that possible?
4. Why would Jesus warn them how to avoid disaster (Luke 21:20-21)?
5. How does He do the same for us (1 Corinthians 10:13); and what does that look like in practice (2 Timothy 2:22)?
6. What do you appreciate about 'The Abomination of Desolation' and 'The Great Tribulation' being 2,000 years behind us? In what ways is Psalm 16:11 a better option?
