

Hope when you are hurting

²⁹Then Jesus told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. ³⁰When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near.

³¹So also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near.

³²Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened.

³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you look at nature, what do you find most interesting (v30)?
2. What are some of the attributes of God that you can learn from looking at nature?
3. What are some of the attributes of God that you cannot learn from looking at nature?
4. Imagine the response of the disciples to the news of all the terrible things that would occur in their lifetime (v31). (See Matthew 27:25)
5. When bad things happen, why do we need the confidence that the Kingdom of God is near us (v31)?
6. Since this whole world is going to pass away (v33a), how can the reliability of Jesus (v33b) words help us?
