

Insights into salvation

¹⁸ Christ suffered once for sins, the Righteous for the unrighteous, so that He might bring you to God. Having indeed been put to death in the flesh, but having been made alive in the spirit, ¹⁹ by which He went and made proclamation to the imprisoned spirits.

²⁰ They disobeyed God when the forbearance of God was eagerly anticipated; in the days while Noah was constructing the ark, in which a few, actually eight souls, were saved through water.

²¹ This symbolises you now being saved; not baptism of the flesh removing filth; but the interrogation of a good conscience, before God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

²² He is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels, and authorities, and powers having been subjected to Him.
