A taste for the good life

¹Therefore, having put aside all malice, and all deceit, and hypocrisy, and grudges, and evil-speaking, ² like newborn babies, it is logical to crave pure milk, so that, by it, you may grow up into salvation, ³ because you have tasted that the Lord is good. 1 Peter 2:1-3

How I new life, is how I new life. v1

Spiritual life with repentance. 2 Corinthians 7:10a

Spiritual life with repentance. Acts 3:19-20a

How I gain new is how I live new v2

I am born with a Matthew 5:6, John 6:35

A word that only occurs twice. Romans 12:1, 1 Peter 2:2

Spiritual is logical. Spiritual is logical.

Have a for 1 Timothy 4:12b

The hunger is for Ephesians 4:15-16

How I gain new is how I gain new v3

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. If money was no object, what is one thing you would give to each member of your family?
2. The word ‘repent’ occurs 56 times in the New Testament. What does it mean; and why is it so prominent?
3. Read 1 Peter 2:2. What is logical for a new believer; and what is its purpose? Why is it logical? How do you satisfy a craving?
4. We’ve got salvation, so how can we grow up into it?
5. Compare the “grow up into...” of 1 Peter 2:2 with the same words in Ephesians 4:15. In what ways are they different, but the same?
6. Read 1 Peter 2:3. How can you “taste” the Lord?
