Remember, you are a winner!

<sup>11</sup> You, whom I love, I urge you, as foreigners and visitors, to replace the desires of the flesh, which war against the soul.

<sup>12</sup> Conduct yourselves with so much honour among the Gentiles that, although they slander you as evildoers,
they may witness your good deeds,
and glorify God on the day He assesses us.      1 Peter 2:11-12

As a winner, I remember ..... 2:11a

I am here as a ..... Fruit of the Spirit is... Galatians 5:22-23

Discussion starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. In the opening words of 1 Peter 2:11 what attitudes and emotions are being expressed? Why are those the most appropriate feelings when you consider what is said in the second half of that verse?
2. How is it possible for our own desires to be at war against our own soul?
3. This verse indicates we cannot avoid that inner conflict; so what are we told to do in order to move towards inner peace?
4. Imagine someone asked you how they replace (literal translation) their inner desires. What advice would you give them?
5. We are told, in 1 Peter 2:12 to conduct ourselves with honour. What does honourable conduct look like, in practice?
6. On the day when God finally assesses our lives, what do you think will be the things that please Him, or disappoint Him?
