Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. What makes a building "amazing"? What is the most amazing building you have been in?
2. Philippians 2:1-11 is an important text. Within that context, v3 sets out a contrast. In what ways are these characterists, opposites; and what is there relationship to building up?
3. Luke 9:47 names "the argument of their hearts" as the cause of the problems. Why is it the heart, not the mind nor events, that is the cause of problems? Is Jeremiah 17:9 fair?
4. Jesus said people not in our congregation are "for us" v50. How are they for us; and conversely, how are we "for them"?
5. Jesus was not welcomed, v53. The disciples had a response, v54. But Jesus had a double response, v55 & 56. Why were His responses necessary, and better?
6. Philippians 2:12 tells me what I am to do, and the attitude with which I am to do it. Why is that attitude important?
