

Protect yourself from boundary violators

¹⁸When Jesus saw a large crowd around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side of the sea.

¹⁹And one of the scribes came to Him and said, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

²⁰Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

²¹Another of His disciples requested, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

²²But Jesus told him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion.

1. Why do you allow some people to get close to you, while others are kept at a distance?
2. We are to love everyone, so how can we justify allowing only some to get closer to us?
3. There were times when Jesus welcomed crowds, while other times He ran away (Matt. 8:18). From your sermon notes, how could Jesus justify being inconsistent?
4. In what circumstances is not helping, actually the best help you can give?
5. What is wrong with "Lord, first let me..." And how can it be corrected?
6. List some benefits of healthy boundaries.
