

The real meaning of Christmas

'Jesus' means He was a real

Jesus had a real

Jesus had a real

As a real person, He can for me.

"The wages of sin is death." Romans 6:23

"Christ, who had no sin, became sin for us." 2 Corinthians 5:21

'Christ' means He can really

Christ really

Christ really

Christ rose again so He can to me.

'Lord' means He is really

Our Lord has God's

Our Lord has God's

A I am imperfect

B in Jesus

C to a new life

Questions to discuss over Christmas lunch:

1. Jesus was a real person. What is one aspect of your own character that you like?
2. Jesus had a real, and sometimes dysfunctional family. What is one family event that stands out in your memory?
3. Jesus really died. At your funeral, what would you like people to remember about you?
4. In the ABC (Admit, Believe, Commitment), why do you think it is helpful to start with Admit to failure?
5. In that ABC, why do you think it closes with an on-going Commitment rather than just a one-off decision?
6. How has God already changed your life; or, how would you like Him to change you for the better?

The real meaning of Christmas

'Jesus' means He was a real

Jesus had a real

Jesus had a real

As a real person, He can for me.

"The wages of sin is death." Romans 6:23

"Christ, who had no sin, became sin for us." 2 Corinthians 5:21

'Christ' means He can really

Christ really

Christ really

Christ rose again so He can to me.

'Lord' means He is really

Our Lord has God's

Our Lord has God's

A I am imperfect

B in Jesus

C to a new life

Questions to discuss over Christmas lunch:

1. Jesus was a real person. What is one aspect of your own character that you like?
2. Jesus had a real, and sometimes dysfunctional family. What is one family event that stands out in your memory?
3. Jesus really died. At your funeral, what would you like people to remember about you?
4. In the ABC (Admit, Believe, Commitment), why do you think it is helpful to start with Admit to failure?
5. In that ABC, why do you think it closes with an on-going Commitment rather than just a one-off decision?
6. How has God already changed your life; or, how would you like Him to change you for the better?