Thought starters for personal reflection, or group discussion

1. What is the difference between being a) a good talker, and b) a good conversationalist? What are your top 3 tips for moving from a) to b)?
2. What are some potential difficulties of someone else deciding what my ministry should be?
3. Answer your friend who asked, "How do I decide to whom I should minister?"
4. List some advantages of ministry being focused on people, rather than on programs.
5. Peter had previously met Jesus (John 1:25-42). Now, (Luke 5:1-3) they meet again. Is it easier to talk about spiritual things to a total stranger, or to someone you know?
6. What is the Good News that people need to hear; and why should they listen to you tell it?
