We are human beings having a spiritual experience.

We are beings having a human experience.

2. There something you can do. I can tell you what you

There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death. Proverbs 14:12

You have been saved by grace, through faith. You can't do this by yourselves. It is God's gift to you. It's not by your works. Eph.2:8-9

In His love for mankind, God our Saviour saved us. This was not through the righteous deeds we had done, but according to His mercy. Titus 2:3-4

My prayer priorities, 7 October 2018

Thought starters for personal reflection, or group discussion

1. Have you had any happy experiences with ants? Why does Proverbs 6:6 present ants in a positive light?
2. Jesus spoke about motivation in John 6:26. What are the prime motivations for our choices; and, is it different for Christians?
3. Look again at the statement about our humanity and our experience. What makes that such an insightful pair of sentences?
4. Read John 6:29. How can belief be equated with work?
5. Instead of "by faith", wouldn't it be more fair if we all worked our way into Heaven?
6. Briefly define "the inspiration of Scripture". Why is "verbal inspiration" important?
