

Plant something worth plucking

<sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived: God is not to be mocked. Whatever a man sows, he will reap in return. <sup>8</sup>The one who sows to please his flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; but the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

<sup>9</sup>Let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to the family of faith.

Thought starters with no wrong answers

1. What is the best thing in, or the best thing about, your garden?
2. Why do you think there is such a strong emphasis on reaping what we sow, v7, 8, 9?
3. We are not to sow to please the flesh (8a), but can't we sow to please ourselves?
4. What sort of things could be sown to please the Spirit (8b).
5. Why might we grow weary (v9)? How do you know if your weariness is a sign to use endurance, or a sign to move on to something else?
6. What is the meaning of doing good to everyone (v10)?
7. Why do you think the final emphasis is beyond generally doing good, and is on doing good to the family of faith?
