Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you are hungry, thirsty, or bored, what do you crave?
2. If you don't get enough to eat, what begins to happen?
3. Righteousness is credited to us when we put our faith in Christ, Philippians 3:7-9. List some drawbacks of deserving or earning righteousness.
4. Righteousness cannot be earned but it must be expressed. How can we do that, Matthew 6:31-33?
5. Righteousness is described as weapons, 2 Corinthians 6:7. In what ways can righteousness be used to overcome opposition to the Gospel?
6. What makes the Bible an important tool for my righteousness, 2 Timothy 3:16-17?
