

What is more important?

Luke 12:13 – 21

1. Correct understanding of our 12:13-14

Jesus came to make me not wealthy.

Resolve your relationships. 13 “my brother”

Resolve your relationships. 14 “judge or executor”

2. Correct understanding of our 12:15

Jesus came to give life, not abundant stuff.

Protect yourself from your self. 15 “Watch out”

Protect yourself from your stuff. 15 “possessions”

3. Correct understanding of 12:16-20

Jesus came to give, not standard of living.

Plan for a future. 17 “What shall I do?”

Plan for a future. 20 “your life will be required”

4. Correct understanding of our 12:21

Jesus came to give in Heaven, not earth.

..... is my treasure? 21 “for himself”

..... is my treasure? 21 “rich towards God”

My prayer priorities for the week beginning Sunday 31 January 2021

Today – New people to come to our church

Mon – Ian & Eleanor D. Hr of Power.

Tue – Val A. Joan J.

Wed – Lorraine B. Jim C. Zoom Bible Study.

Thur – Deirdre B. Lyn K.

Fri – Stuart & Kaye B.

Sat – Clarence & Irene B.

Sun – Sue C & Bill. Lord’s Supper

Thought starters for personal reflection, or group discussion:

1. When you were a child, were you aware of your family being rich or poor?
2. When did you start to learn the value of money?
3. What is the difference between ‘standard of living’ and ‘quality of life’? Which one is better; and why?
4. Read Luke 12:13-15. Why would Jesus refuse to help someone who was hurting? Should we ever refuse to help?
5. Also read the parable of the man with a problem, and a plan (Luke 12:16-19). God did not think much of his plan (v20). Why?
6. What advice would you give to someone writing their Last Will and Testament?
7. Jesus advises us to be “rich toward God”. How can we do that?
