

Be prepared! (Prepared for what?)

¹² I will always remind you of these things, even though you understand them, and are established in the truth you have.

¹³ I consider it right, as long as I am in this tent, to refresh your memory.

¹⁴ I understand that the laying aside of my tent is imminent, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.

¹⁵ And so, I will be diligent to ensure that after my departure, you will always be able to remember these things.

2 Peter 1:12-15

Prepare for today by setting my 1:12

I want to your mind.

The commands I give you are... Deut.6:6-9

I want to your faith.

Your faith and love... Col.1:5

Prepare for tomorrow by being ready for my 1:13-14

My soul my mind.

No one cares how much you know, until...

My soul my body.

earthly tent... house in Heaven. 2 Cor.5:1

Prepare for the day after by establishing a 1:15

I will leave behind.

Store up for yourselves... Matt.6:20-21

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. Why do you think death is a topic that is rarely discussed in public, but is openly mentioned in the Bible?
2. What would you like to happen at your funeral; and why?
3. Your Last Will and Testament will pass on objects, but how do you pass on attributes?
4. After your passing, what are three things you would like others to remember about you?
5. How can we live in the light of eternity, but do so without becoming morbid or sad?
6. In what ways does Jesus determine our views of life and death and life after death?
