What about the innocent native who never hears of Jesus?

¹²All who sin apart from the Law will also perish apart from the Law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law... ¹⁴Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written Law, show that they know His Law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. ¹⁵They demonstrate that God's Law is written in their hearts, because their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion.

1. Would it be fair for God to punish people for disobeying laws they could never know about; and how do you know He won't punish them (Psalms 119:137)?
2. How can people know about God, even if they have never seen a Bible (Psalm 19:1-4, Romans 1:19-20)?
3. How is it possible for people to know what God wants, even when they have never been told what He requires of them (Romans 2:14-15)?
4. How can the experiences of King David (2 Samuel 12:13-23), and King Jeroboam (1 Kings 14:1-13), be an encouragement to those who have lost children, or who have children with disabilities?
5. So, how would you answer someone who asks 'What happens to the innocent native who dies without ever hearing the Gospel of Jesus Christ?'
