Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. Did you answer the 20-question quiz? What was one thing that confirmed what you already knew about yourself; and what was one thing that surprised you?
2. Why is it helpful to know both the positive and negative qualities of our temperament?
3. Nehemiah, and Paul, express strong choleric tendencies. What is one thing you admire about choleric? What are things we need to guard against in the choleric part of our temperament?
4. Abraham, and Moses, express strong phlegmatic tendencies. What is one thing you admire about phlegmatics? What are things we need to guard against in the phlegmatic part of our temperament?
5. David, and Elijah, express strong melancholic tendencies. What is one thing you admire about melancholics? What are things we need to guard against in the melancholic part of our temperament?
6. Peter, and John, express strong sanguine tendencies. What is one thing you admire about sanguines? What are things we need to guard against in the sanguine part of our temperament?
