

Be smart in a scary world

⁴ Now, to those of you who are My friends, I say:

you do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that, are not able to do anything whatsoever.

⁵ However, I will show you whom you should fear:

Fear the One who, after you have been killed, has authority to throw you into Hell.

Yes, I say to you, fear Him!

⁶ Are not five tiny birds sold for two cents?

Yet not one of them is overlooked in the sight of God.

⁷ And even the hairs of your head are all numbered.

Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many tiny birds.

Discussion starters for personal reflection or group study

1. What makes something scary?
2. In Luke 12:4, Jesus indicates that death is not something that His friends need to fear. How does 2 Corinthians 5:1-5 confirm this?
3. Write two lists: 1, Why we should be afraid of God; and 2, Why we should not be afraid of God.
4. In Luke 12:5, Jesus is emphatic that we should fear God. What is the message we should heed?
5. Did the statistics surprise you: “Heaven” used 142 times (93%), “Hell” used 11 times (7%), in the Gospels? What does that tell us?
6. In Luke 12:7, what is Jesus’ Action Point; and why does He say we are to take that action?
