

Everything I need is already around me

¹² Through Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging, and clearly witnessing, this to be the true grace of God within which you stand.

¹³ Greetings from the co-elected in Babylon, and Mark, my son.

¹⁴ Greet one another with a family kiss of holy love.

Peace to you all, who are in Christ.

1 Peter 5:12-14

The Father has already blessed us in Christ. Eph.1:3

I need the who are around me

These people are

These people are

These people are

I need the that are around me

I do tasks that

I do tasks that
Encourage the faint-hearted. 1 Thess.5:14-18

I do tasks that
You will be My witnesses. Acts 1:8

I need the that are around me

My resources are from

My resources are all

My resources are now

My prayer priorities for this week

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. What sort of people do you like to have around you? What sort of people do you not like to be around?
2. Read Ephesians 1:3. What have we already got; and not got? Be specific; write a list.
3. Silas was a success as a missionary. Mark was a failure (Acts 15:36-14) Why do I need both of these sorts of people in my life?
4. Tasks in the Scripture include: writing, encouraging, witnessing, and greeting. Which of these do you find easiest; and why? Which of them do you find hardest; and why?
5. We stand in the true grace of God (v12). In what ways does this differ from a false grace?
6. This letter ends with the words, "in Christ" (v14). Briefly explain how those two words summarise the whole Gospel.
