

You can't judge me, you hypocrite!

¹“Do not judge, or you will be judged. ²For with the same judgment you pronounce, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

³Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but fail to notice the log in your own eye?

⁴How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ while there is still a log in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite!

First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

⁶Do not give dogs what is holy; do not throw your pearls before swine. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion.

1. How do you feel when people are judgmental against you? Is it any easier if you have done something wrong?
2. What does Jesus warn are consequences of judgementalism, v2, and why do we naturally do that? Who judges us in v2?
3. Are there any circumstances where it is ok for a Christian to pass judgment; and if we do judge, are we disobeying v1?
4. What is the difference between making discerning judgments and having a condemning attitude?
5. Explain the speck and log metaphor, v3-5, to someone who has no Bible knowledge.
6. Also explain pearls before pigs, v6. Shouldn't we share the Gospel with everyone?
