

How much do I need to know?

³¹Then Jesus took the Twelve aside and said to them, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything the prophets have written about the Son of Man will be fulfilled.

³²He will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. ³³They will flog Him and kill Him; and on the third day He will rise again.”

³⁴But the disciples did not understand any of these things. The meaning was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what He was saying.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. List some advantages of knowing what is about to happen. Are there advantages in not knowing what is about to happen?
2. Suggest some reasons why Jesus would give so much detail of what was about to happen – both negative things, and positive.
3. When our “to do” list gets messed up, what are some physically, emotionally, and spiritually healthy ways to deal with it?
4. Read Romans 8:18. Where is the suffering? Where is the glory? How do I measure the “worth”?
5. Read 1 Corinthians 13:12. Suggestion some reasons why we have to wait for this understanding.
6. Read Luke 9:45, and Luke 24:25. What actions could we take to overcome the problems in these two verses?
