

Luke 7:11-17

Boldly go where I've never gone before

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterwards, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. <sup>12</sup> As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out – the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. <sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, 'Don't cry.'

<sup>14</sup> Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, 'Young man, I say to you, get up!' <sup>15</sup> The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> They were all filled with awe and praised God. 'A great prophet has appeared among us,' they said. 'God has come to help his people.' <sup>17</sup> This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

This week's song selection

O for a thousand tongues | Holy, holy, holy | Live with abandon | Item: out on a limb | Living in the rhythm of grace | Love incarnate | Pass it on | People to people

For personal reflection, or group study.

1. How many funerals have you attended? What makes a funeral a 'good' funeral?
2. Read Luke 7:13. What is Jesus' first reaction to grief? What do you think might be the top benefit of Jesus feeling our grief?
3. What did Jesus say in v14, and why do you think He was so specific?
4. When, in v15, the man 'began to talk', what do you think he talked about?
5. In the same verse, what did Jesus do, and why?
6. Every time Jesus was confronted with a dead or dying person, He restored them. Who were those people, and why did He do it?
