

No, please don't look at me!

Ephesians 3:1,7-9

I am a but look who holds the key. 3:1

I am a prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you gentiles... Ephesians 3:1

If it is the Son who sets you free, you are free indeed. John 8:36

He who is Holy and True holds the key... He opens no one shuts... Rev.3:7

I am a but look what I have. 3:7

I became a servant of this Gospel by the gift of God's grace, given to me through the working of His power. Ephesians 3:7

I have the message

I have the gift

I have the power

I am but look what is important. 3:8-9

I am less than the least of all God's people, but this grace was given to me...

I have an important message...

...given from

...given for those

...given about something

...to be kept

This week I need to be praying for:

Discussion starters with no wrong answers:

1. Why do some people seem to think they are the centre of the universe? What are some possible benefits, and dangers, of believing you are the centre of the universe?
2. "Everyone is a prisoner." How is it possible to move from "having something hold you (be a prisoner)" to "holding something important"? How is it logical to have the Son set us free (John 8:36), yet still be a prisoner of Christ (Ephesians 3:1)?
3. What are some techniques used by managers to build successful businesses? What makes Service to most powerful management tool? What are some other areas where Service makes a positive difference?
4. "Everyone is born broken. We become alive by mending. God's grace is the glue." What is meant by "broken"? How do we go about "mending"? How does "God's grace" act as our glue?
5. Have you chosen, and are you living, the ABC of salvation? What is one thing you can do that would increase your enjoyment and usefulness of your salvation?
