

Have I got news for you!

¹Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, called as an Apostle, and set apart for the Gospel of God, ²which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, ³regarding His Son, who was a descendant of David according to the flesh, ⁴and who through the Spirit of Holiness was declared, with power, to be the Son of God by His resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord.

⁵Through Him, and on behalf of His name, we received grace and apostleship to call all those among the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith.

⁶And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

⁷To all in Rome who are loved by God, and called as saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion.

1. Why should anyone believe what is written in the Bible?
2. The Bible records all sorts of horrible events. Why does it do that?
3. What are some implications of being made in the image of God?
4. If God really loves me and has a wonderful plan for my life, why is the world such a mess; and why doesn't He make me rich, healthy, and good-looking?
5. For how long do negative consequences last?
6. Jesus is fully God, and fully human. Why is it important that He is both?
7. Is it fair that God makes Jesus the only way into Heaven?
