

God wants it – I get it

²⁶You are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

²⁷For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

²⁹And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed and heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 3:26-29

NOT what God wants me,
BUT what God wants me!

God wants me to be in His so I am born again. 3:26

1 John 3:10 This is how we can tell
John 1:12-13 Receive... believe... born
John 3:3 No one can see the Kingdom unless...

God wants me to be so I am integrated. 3:27a

Acts 2:38 Repent and be baptised every one
Romans 6:3 Baptised into His death

God wants me to be so I am transformed. 3:27b

Ephesians 4:22,24 Put off... put on...

God wants me to be in so I am accepted.

Romans 3:29-30 There is only one God
1 Corinthians 12:13 The body is a unit

God wants me to have a so I live by His promise.

Romans 8:17 Heirs of God, co-heirs with Christ

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. How well did you get along with your siblings, or other members of your family?
2. Are your relationships with those people better, or worse, than when you were a child? How do you account for changes in the quality of your relationships?
3. What are some advantages, and disadvantages, of our church being like a family?
4. We have “clothed ourselves with Christ” (v27b) That is an amazing illustration, but what does it mean in practice?
5. Since we “are all one in Christ Jesus” (v28b) why does racism and sexism exist in the church; and what should we do about it?
6. We are “heirs according to the promise” (v29b) and “joint-heirs with Christ (Romans 8:17). By His death, what have we already inherited, and what can we expect?
