

Prophet, Priest, and King

<sup>14</sup>When the hour had come, Jesus reclined at the table with His apostles. <sup>15</sup>And He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before My suffering. <sup>16</sup>For I tell you that I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup>After taking the cup, He gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves.

<sup>18</sup>For I tell you that I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes."

<sup>19</sup>And He took the bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

<sup>20</sup>In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.

<sup>22</sup>Indeed, the Son of Man will go as it has been determined, but woe to that man who betrays Him."

<sup>23</sup>Then they began to question among themselves which of them was going to do this.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. What event/s do you most look forward to enjoying?
2. Jesus "eagerly desired" (v15) to have this time with His disciples. Suggest some reasons why it would be so special for Him.
3. Jesus knew who would betray Him. What would it be like to work with someone who is untrustworthy? What strategies do you need?
4. Jesus said the Passover will be full-filled in the Kingdom of God (Luke 22:16). What is the Kingdom of God (Romans 14:17); and how is it a full-fill-ment of the Passover?
5. How can we overcome Satan (Revelation 12:10-11)?
6. Luke reorganises the order of events to end with a prediction of His betrayal, and a warning to that person. What lessons does this convey to us?
