A resilient faith, godly direction, beneficial assistance

Something to think, and talk, about

1. Children learn to sing nursery rhymes. Most radio stations play music. List some reasons why music plays a major part in our lives.
2. Suggest some reasons why God would make a song book (Psalms) to be the largest book (150 chapters) in the Bible.
3. There are many sad songs in the Psalms. Why do you think this song collection ends on such an upbeat note with the final Psalm?
4. List some advantages that flow into me when I give praise.
5. What are some differences between Thanks and Praise? Is it possible to have one without the other? Why are they both necessary?
6. Why do we need to praise God as a group; and as individuals? Do you find it easier to praise when you are with others, or when you are alone?
7. What advice would you give to someone who said they have trouble praising God?
