A dance of three steps

Galatians 3:15-25

Step 1. 3:15-16

God’s promises are our

“cannot be cancelled nor amended” v15

“God cannot lie” Hebrews 6:18, Titus 1:1-2

God’s promises are our

“and to your Seed,” meaning One, who is Christ. v16

First promise Genesis 12:1-3, and last Genesis 22:15-18

Step 1. 3:17-21

God’s promises are never v17

“does not revoke the covenant” v17

“I have spoken... I have purposed... Isaiah 46:11

God’s promises are never v21

First promise Genesis 12:1-3, and last Genesis 22:15-18

Step 1. 3:22-25

God’s promises are to be v22

“given to those who exercise faith.” v22

“better assurance is implemented” Hebrews 7:18-19

God’s promises are to be v25

“no longer under a guardian.” v25

“our guardian to lead us to Christ” v24

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Galatians 5:1

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. List some consequences of broken promises.
2. God has made lots of promises, and has faithfully kept them all. Why does He keep them, even when we are unworthy?
3. We are not saved when we are good, and lost when we are bad. Do you think there is a danger we could become spiritually lax?
4. Suggest some good ways of responding to our promise-keeping God.
5. What is the purpose of the Old Testament (Galatians 3:24)? How does it fulfil that purpose?
6. How does faith nullify the Law (Galatians 3:25)?
