

My super power is in my mouth

³³Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients, ‘Do not break your oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord.’

³⁴But I tell you not to swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God’s throne; ³⁵or by the earth, for it is His footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

³⁶Nor should you swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black.

³⁷Simply let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No,’ ‘No.’ Anything more comes from the evil one.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. How do you feel when someone breaks a promise?
2. Why should anyone believe you will keep your promises?
3. Why do people break their promises?
4. How can you know if someone will keep their promises?
5. What is the intended purpose of swearing an oath with one hand raised and the other hand on a Bible?
6. When someone says, like v34-36, “I swear on my mother’s grave,” What are they trying to say?
7. Why would Jesus say, v37, it is not necessary for His followers to swear oaths?
8. Why is your mouth a ‘super power’?
