
 Luke 9:22-26

Paint me in BOLD colours!

²² Jesus said, 'The Son of Man must suffer many things; and must be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the law; and He must be killed; and on the third day, must be raised to life.'

²³ Then He said to them all: 'Whoever wants to be My disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross, daily, and follow Me.'

²⁴ For whoever wants to save their life will lose it; but whoever loses their life for Me will save it.

²⁵ What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, and yet lose, or forfeit, their very self?

²⁶ Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when He comes in His glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. Would you deliberately go into an art museum; and if you would, what sort of art would you find most attractive?
2. It is bad enough that Jesus died. Why was it necessary for Him to be put to death so drastically? Does Hebrews 9:26 help explain it?
3. In Luke 9:22 Jesus explained that it was not only necessary for Him to die, but also necessary for Him to rise again. Why are both events necessary?
4. Read Luke 9:23. If Jesus is not giving fashion advice, what is He trying to say? Is wearing a cross right or wrong?
5. What practical suggestions would you give to someone trying to apply Romans 6:11? (What is one personal application for you?)
6. In some white space near the top of the page, take less than 60 seconds to draw a portrait of our Pastor.
