

Luke 9:18-21 The Truth. The whole truth. and nothing but...

<sup>18</sup> Once when Jesus was praying in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, 'Who do the crowds say I am?'

<sup>19</sup> They replied, 'Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life.'

<sup>20</sup> 'But what about you?' he asked. 'Who do you say I am?'

Peter answered, 'The Christ of God.'

<sup>21</sup> Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone.

My prayer priorities for the week beginning 14 July 2019

Today's worship through music

Come, now is the time to worship | Salvation belongs to our God | Every praise | Lifegiver (item) | Who is on the Lord's side | Meekness and majesty | Above all | You can trust Him

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you need to make a decision, what steps do you take to ensure the decision you make is a smart one?
2. Why is it important to be right about who Jesus is? How does John 14:6 and Act 4:12 give us confidence that we are correct?
3. Re-read John 14:6 and Acts 4:12. What challenge does this bring to non-Christian religions? Should this be an embarrassment to us?
4. Imagine a parent telling his child the answers to his homework. Why is this not a helpful practice? Why is it better to help someone discover Jesus, rather than just tell who He is? How would you do this?
