

Be sure of your destination

¹⁰ Therefore, brothers and sisters, be diligent to make sure of your calling and choosing.

Because, in practicing these things you will not; no never, stumble, at any time.

¹¹ In this way you will be granted lavish entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you get to Heaven, what is one thing you are really looking forward to enjoying?
2. Why is assurance or confidence essential for a healthy relationship?
3. What are some things that a) build; and b) weaken; a confident relationship?
4. List some things that God has done to enable us to have a confident relationship with Him.
5. Suggest some reasons why Christians might lack confidence in God.
6. What advice would you give to a weak believer that would help to build their confidence in God?
