

Look at me! Who do I see?

¹What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he is the owner of everything. ²He is subject to guardians and trustees until the date set by his father.

³So also, when we were children, we were enslaved under the basic principles of the world.

⁴But when the time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, ⁵to redeem those under the law, that we might receive our adoption as sons. ⁶And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" ⁷So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, you are also an heir through God.

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you were growing up, did having older, younger, or no brothers or sisters, have any obvious effect on how you related to them or others?
2. When is the worst, or best, time to receive an inheritance?
3. The death of Jesus initiated the New Covenant which made you His heir. Which part of your inheritance do you most understand, or least understand, or most enjoy?
4. Jesus came when the time was ripe (v4). What factors made that the right time?
5. Jesus came, more than 4,000 years after His arrival was first promised. Suggest some reasons why God often seems slow to act. After answering read 2 Peter 3:8-9 and add to your earlier answer.
6. Are you comfortable calling God, "Daddy"? How do we balance familiarity and respect?
