Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. Have you ever lost your keys and been locked out of your home, your car, or your workplace? What was that like?
2. In what ways is the answer to Q1 similar to, and different from, being excluded from the 'in' crowd?
3. Imagine yourself to be one of the exiled and scattered few Christians of 1 Peter 1:1. What would be the significance of a letter from an apostle, corporate worship, and fellowship? Have we lost it; and can we regain that significance today?
4. God the Father has foreknowledge (v2), so why should I pray?
5. God the Holy Spirit sanctifies me (v2), so why should I pray, worship, or study the Bible?
6. God the Son sprinkled His blood for my sin (v2), so why should I worry about my sin?
