This week's song selection

All I wanna do is praise Your name | Father God I wonder... I will praise Your name | Everything that has breath praise the Lord | There's a quiet understanding | More, more about Jesus | It's about the cross | Thank you for my special friends | They'll know we are Christians by our love

Thought starters for personal reflection, or group discussion

1. When you get angry with someone, what are the sorts of things that trigger your anger?
2. We are not told what Euodia and Syntche disagreed about. Why is it a good thing that we don't know their argument? And why is it not always helpful to know the details about other people's arguments?
3. Euodia and Syntche were not told to agree with each other. What were they told to do, and why is that a better option?
4. If you were the yoke-fellow in v3 asked to help these women, what steps would you take?
5. Read v3. Most of the verse recalls past events. What events are identified, and why would they be helpful?
6. What are some benefits of remember that Christ died for me; lives in me; lives through me; and lives through us?
