Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. When you hear the words "temptation" and "testing," what distinct mental images or feelings immediately come to mind for you?
2. In our current culture, what do you think is the most subtle or overlooked form of temptation that believers face daily?
3. If Satan uses temptation to make us fall, what is God's ultimate purpose in allowing our faith to be tested?
4. Compare Eve's response to temptation in the garden with Jesus' response in the wilderness. How did Jesus succeed, while Eve did not?
5. God promises a way out of temptation, 1 Corinthians 10:13. Why is that "way out" sometimes so difficult for us to see or choose in the moment?
6. Without mentioning a specific event, how have you ultimately benefited from failing, or succeeding, when tempted?
