

Jesus is coming again – Here’s why it could be today

<sup>26</sup>Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man: <sup>27</sup>People were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>28</sup>It was the same in the days of Lot: People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. <sup>29</sup>But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

<sup>30</sup>It will be just like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>On that day, let no one on the housetop come down to retrieve his possessions. Likewise, let no one in the field return for anything he has left behind. <sup>32</sup>Remember Lot’s wife! <sup>33</sup>Whoever tries to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it. <sup>34</sup>I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed: One will be taken and the other left. <sup>35</sup>Two women will be grinding grain together: One will be taken and the other left.”

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. What did Jesus say are the signs of His imminent return (v27-28); and why are they so general?
2. Is it fair that ordinary people going about their business should suddenly be swept away (v27b, 29b)?
3. Why do you think God would want His people see all the godless people removed and judged (v34-35)?
4. Why are we not permitted to take anything with us (v31) into Heaven?
5. What are we to remember about Lot’s wife (v32)?
6. Verse 33 seems self-contradictory. What does it really mean?
