For personal reflection, or group study.

1. Have you ever gate-crashed a party, or witnessed someone embarrassing themselves at a special event?
2. Explain the meaning of sin, or give an illustration of sin, using non-religious language.
3. Jesus spoke about the woman's sins (v47-48) but refused to call her a sinner. Does this seem inconsistent?
4. What are the most important things you can say to someone who is emotionally close to you?
5. What were the 3 things Jesus said to the woman (v48,50)? What do you think were her needs that Jesus said those things to her?
6. Why is it that an increase in, a) worshipping the holiness of God, and b) a horror of my own sin, and c) a richer spiritual life, go together?
