

Going to win

I'm going into the world with my open.
Mark 13:28
 28 'Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: as soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.
 We have opened wide our hearts to you... As a fair exchange, open wide your hearts also. 2 Corinthians 6:11-13
God wants me to
 Romans 12:1-2
God gives me
 2 Corinthians 6:2 Psalm 90:12

I'm going into the world with my open.
Mark 13:29
 29 Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door.
Look around in
 Look... Matthew 6:26; John 4:34; Hebrews 12:1-2
Look ahead in
 The Kingdom is at hand Mark 1:15; Mark 12:34

I'm going into the world with my open.
Mark 13:30-31
 30 Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.
Hold on to
 Do something today for which your future self will thank you.
 Acts 13:36; 1 Corinthians 3:16; Joshua 1:9
Hold on to
 If what's ahead scares you, and what's behind has hurt you, then just look up above. Jesus will never fail you.

31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

For personal reflection, or group discussion

1. We are told to learn a lesson from the fig tree (v28). What makes it possible to learn lessons from inanimate objects?
2. Read 2 Corinthians 6:11-13. What clues to you find here for building healthy and close relationships? In what circumstances would this text not be a good instruction?
3. How much time does it take to introduce a change into your life? What slows down the changes we need to make? And how can we speed up the positive changes we want to see?
4. Read 2 Corinthians 6:1-2. This was written to those who are already saved, so what is meant by "now is the day of salvation"? Suggest ways we apply each aspect of these verses more fully?
5. Read Psalm 90:12. How does the first half of this verse relate to the second half? How can we do the first half in better ways?
6. One of Jesus' favourite sayings was "The Kingdom of God is near" (eg Mark 1:15). What does the Kingdom look like on Monday?
