

The question I would ask God is...

I've got questions. I'm for answers. Luke 8:9

His disciples asked Jesus what this parable meant.

The purpose of parables is to drive me to

I've got questions. I am answers. Luke 8:10a

Jesus explained, 'The knowing the mysteries of God's Kingdom has been gifted to you.'

The power of parables is to teach me Kingdom

This week's song selection

Shine Jesus shine | Father God I wonder... I will sing Your praises | Standing on the promises | Most of the time (item) | Spirit song... o let the Son of God enfold you | The potter's hand | Jesus is the answer | Jesus is the answer

For personal reflection, or group study.

1. Why are we sometimes embarrassed to ask questions?
2. What is your question that only God could answer? (This might be very personal, so you do not have to share this with others.)
3. Why do you think God wants us to ask Him questions?
4. Review the 2 New Testament words translated as "know". Why does Scripture emphasise the value of having the second one?
5. Suggest some good ways of getting that sort of knowledge.
6. List some advantages of having this sort of knowledge.
7. Why is God's Kingdom full of mysteries? When are they revealed?
