

Here is your reward

¹“Be careful not to perform your righteous acts before men to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in Heaven.

²So when you give to the needy, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honoured by men. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward.

³But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.
Matthew 6:1-4

Thought starters for personal reflection or group discussion

1. What makes an action “righteous”; and what are some differences between “righteous acts” v1, and religious acts?
2. Give some examples of righteous acts.
3. In what ways do you benefit when you do righteous acts? In what ways do others benefit when you do righteous acts?
4. In Matthew 6:1, what are the problems in doing righteous acts? In those circumstances, are those acts still righteous?
5. List some of the differences, and similarities, between Matt.6:1, and 6:2.
6. What expectations does Jesus have, as shown in His opening words in v1, 2, and 3? Why would He have such expectations?
7. Explain what Jesus means by His words in v3b-4a.
8. What can we realistically, actually, specifically, expect from our Heavenly Father, v6?
